

Jesup Depression and Bipolar Support Group

Our Creed

As a group united, our main purpose is to show care and concern. We support and enforce to take action against the pain and suffering of anyone with a mental impairment. We also welcome anyone who would like to become an active part of helping to achieve the goal to educate and bring as much hope in life regardless of the type of illness one has. The efforts and true care has been proven by our support group by giving hope and understanding to many who has trusted and put faith in people that has fell victims to an illness that must be faced head on. This is where our special group comes as an ally to help fight the battle against Mental Illness. Our faith is strong and never ending. Through our group support, we will fight the battle together. Giving up is only a term used in the past for the mentally ill. Our goals now are standing up!
